

Overdues & Fines

Overdues

Once a patron has accumulated five (5) overdue items, his/her borrowing privileges will be suspended until the overdue items are returned and fines paid.

- Overdue items may be renewed under the renewal conditions.
- The library offers amnesty week 2 times a year. During this time, all overdue items may be returned with no fines assessed. Amnesty, however, does not cover fines already accrued.
- Once a patron has accumulated more than two dollars ($2) in fines, his/her borrowing privileges will be suspended until arrangements are made to pay the fines.
- The library is willing to work with patrons who have large fines. Arrangements can be made to pay the fine in installments. The library, however, reserves the right to limit borrowing privileges until the fine is paid.
- If a patron repeatedly accumulates overdue items and fines, the library has the right to limit that patron's borrowing privileges.

Fines

Fines are accrued at the following rates:

- Books, audios and magazines.
  - .10 (ten) cents per day for each item.
- Videos, DVD's, genealogy & West Virginia items.
  - .25 (twenty-five) cents per day for each item.
- Reference.
  - $1.00 (one) dollar per day for each item.
